“ With deepest sympathy & love, the Bernsteins purchased the Simply Elegant Spathiphyllum for the family of Angela Piciuccio.

“ We will miss Zia Lina's unconditional love, her gentle guidance, and her fabulous laugh.

Like a Chagall painting, I see Zia Lina floating on the clouds with Zio Riccardo, with Angelo, with my mom, Nonna Lucia, Zio Sandro, Theresa, Cathy, Zio Martino, Zia Fanny and so many others who have left us. The clouds are filled with shoemakers, seamstresses, tailors and carpenters. The women in aprons, make gnocchi and la salsa. There is a counter filled with ricotta pies and biscotti made by Zia Lina. And there are sfogliatelli, cannoli and other edible delights from our neighborhood bakery. Sweet music fills the space between the clouds; I hear the guitars and mandolins, I smell the espresso coffee. The homemade wine, made each year in our basements, is on the table. I hear the lively Italian chatter of a reunion of mother's, daughters, husbands, wives, sons, sister-in-laws, compares and comares.

And here on earth, you've left the adult table nearly empty. And one by one, we take your seats. ☐

“ Zia Lina, we have so many beautiful memories that I will always carry in my heart. The best part of coming back to Syracuse was always visiting you. Your light, love and laughter will be with me always. You left your heart in San Francisco and a piece of it will always be with me. I love you. Marirose

“ To Joe and greater family,
May GOD, who calls our dear ones home, be ever close to you, may he enfold you with his love and send you comfort too.
With Sympathy.

Joe and I worked together a couple of times over the years. I even went to the home above the shoe repair shop for dinner one time. A great and large meal. A lot of good memories.

“ Dear Joe and Family,

I was sorry to hear of the loss of your mom. Although I never met her, after reading the lovely tribute to her she sounds just like my grandmother and every other Italian mother and grandmother I knew! How blessed you were to have her for so long. May God welcome her into Heaven with open arms!

“ I have so many great memories of Lena, she treated me like her own daughter. I used to love going over to her house playing with Lucy, eating dinner there and then playing italian card game. I also remember on Sunday nights going for Ice cream. When I would go visit her in my adult years she would always ask how everyone in my family was. She remembered everyone of them by name. I was so blest to have had her in my life. I know she is at peace now with her husband and son. My thoughts and prayers are with you all at this time. Love Lori
