“ I remember the day you became my Godmother as well as my Grandmother and it was one of the most important days of my life and I will forever hold it in my heart. I love you and life will never be the same without you here. You made me the woman I am today. I am a great mom and wife because of all the lessons you taught me and all the love you have given me. I can never repay you for all you have done for me. I love you with all my heart Grandma and I know you are in heaven now with mommy and all of our family who have gone. May you RIP always and we will see each other again someday until then you just keep watching over us from paradise. Gone to soon but never forgotten. 🙏

“ I'll always remember the good times we shared even when we grew closer toward the end of our journey together. I miss your smile, and your good spirit; Especially the moment we spent your last 93rd birthday together at the Carousel Mall in March of 2020. Your smiling expression ment everything. I love you, Anna M. Figueroa. I will miss you dearly.

“ The world is full of life, spirit & joy. There is no expressing the love I have for the one special women who can never be replaced in my eyes. My mother from 1977 to the end with me your happiness is my fuel to better myself so, you can dance the heavens a proud mother above who has guided me right through these wickedest times of pandimania.
