

Charles Salomon, Sr.

November 16, 1940 - July 28, 2019

Charles John Salomon, Sr. passed away with his family by his side, joining his beloved brother, Larry, in heaven, on July 28, 2019. A devoted fan of the Boston Red Sox until the end, he is survived by his three children, Mary Jo (Jake), Christine, and Charles Jr. (Adrienne), as well as his two grandchildren, Addison and Braelyn Salomon. He is also survived by his two sisters, Sadie Fox and Sarah Olmsted (Russ) and several nieces and nephews.

In addition to loving the Red Sox, Chuck enjoyed bowling, golfing, tending to his plants, and playing cards. He was always up for a good game of "pitch." Chuck was an avid reader and had a deep interest in history and biographies. He had a great sense of humor, enjoyed socializing, and was a generous soul who often lifted people up with his smile and outgoing personality. Chuck also loved all animals and was especially bonded with his last dog, Chelsea.

He was proud of his service to our country in the United States Army, but prouder still of the accomplishments of his children and grandchildren. Always the optimist, he will be greatly missed by all who knew him.

Calling hours will be held on Thursday, August 1st, from 4 p.m. to 7 p.m. at FARONE & SON Inc Funeral Home, 1500 Park Street, Syracuse. Burial will be private.

If you would like to make a donation in Chuck's honor, please donate to the Humane Society of United States at humanesociety.org, Clear Path for Veterans at clearpath4vets.com, or an animal organization of your choosing.

“ Dear MaryJo and family,

I'm so sorry to learn of the passing of your father. I am not at all surprised to learn about what a positive and generous man he was based on what I know (and love) about you, MJ. May your dad rest in peace and enjoy eternal life in Heaven. Prayers for your family to be comforted by loving memories of your dad and his positive impact on many lives.

Love,
Sharon

“ Chrissy, Chuckie, and Mary Jo, I was so sad to hear about your dad. I remember a few years back when Chuckie and I went to a Syracuse basketball game and Chuck came over to babysit. We had great conversation and he expressed how proud he was of his children and grandchildren. I told him he should be proud of himself for raising such fine children. Elaine and I express our deepest sympathy.

Love,
Uncle Nick

“ I loved this man growing up, I loved his family too. It was the best part of growing up on Elmcrest Road. I was thinking of a favorite memory and one came to mind immediately, that being the 'swan' dive Mr. Salomon would do off the diving board in the cole family pool. I remember him always with a smile on his face. It's funny, when he took his shirt off to jump in the pool I thought wow, this guy had a lot of hair on his chest and his back I think, funny because I thought I'd never have that much hair, I am very much an adult now, my sister calls me brother bear and my wife and son call me a hairy monkey (ha! ha! ha!) It was also Mr Salomon and his son Chuckie that introduce me to the Boston Red Sox,I was a die-hard Yankees fan then, little did I know how much better it was to be a Red Sox fan and what impact it would have in my life, it's hard not to think about my Red Sox story and not think about this family. I both love the Red Sox and the Salomon family. When I was little, my best friend used to live in their house on Elmcrest, so that home, the families that lived in it, had a special place in my heart. Mr Saloman raised some amazing children as well, both Chrissy and Chuckie we there for the passing of our mother and father, our families were much connected. The only thing I wished was that Mr Salomon would have gone to his old family home and asked the residents who live there if we could rip apart their wall to get his old baseball card, both Chuckie and I dreamed about it, Mr Salomon even teased us by driving by it. (Chuckie and I LOVED our baseball cards) If I could go back to any part of my childhood, it would be back to those days, throwing strikes from the make-shift pitching mound from the side walk to to the home plate painted in the street. Chuckie was the older brother I always wanted, And yes I had a crush on his sister Chrissy! I hope when I pass, I am remembered the same way I remember Mr. Salomon,maybe not the hairy part though. ;) We lost a good one yesterday, when its my time, I look foward to watching some Red Sox games with you Mr Salomon! #GoSox #RedSoxNation #DirtyWater (Love always, Michael)
