“ My husband, baby, and I moved into Ed's neighborhood about 6 months ago. Right off the bat, we new Ed was a genuine, caring man. The first day we moved in he came over and introduced himself to us and from then on he always had a friendly smile and chatted often with my husband, baby and I. He was super sweet with our son! I recently found out that Ed and his son were our mysterious shovelers. We had noticed someone had cleared out the driveway several times for us and were grateful but did not know whom to thank for their kindness...we should have guessed and known it was Ed! I wish my son was older to have had the opportunity to meet Ed-his good nature and genuinely is definitely a character trait I want my son to learn and follow. His kindness that he brought to our family, in a short time just reflects how much he has positively influenced others in his life and how, through his kind gestures, he has left an impact on many people. Our prayers are with Ed and his family during this time of grief-hold tight to your memories together <3

“ I knew Ed as a fellow National Grid worker and also from him refereeing the many youth basketball games. He was a tremendous individual who always showed a positive attitude. He will surely be missed by the community he so enjoyed to serve. My condolences and prayers go out to his family.

“ I worked with Ed for about 20 years, starting with Niagara Mohawk, then while NGrid took over, and thru the IBM outsourcing. He was a good friend. We would often chat at lunchtime about basketball or gardening depending upon the season. He would share with me about his successes and struggles with the animals that would sometimes try to eat his veggies. I will miss him very much. May God Bless him, Bob Becker

“ To Ed's family,
My deepest condolences on the lost of a great man. Ed was always willing to help our others and give them a chance. He always found the ways to help kids get better. YEOP meant a lot to Ed and he wanted to give kids the chance to play basketball because he believed to give everyone a chance. I'll miss officiating with Ed. I've had the pleasure of officiating with Ed quite a few times in his officiating career. I always had fun officiating with him.

“ To Ed's family,

I worked with Ed for the last 20 years at National Grid. He was a kind, funny man, and will be greatly missed at National Grid and in the community!

“ My deepest condolences to Ed's family.

I had the privilege to work with Ed at Niagara Mohawk/National Grid for many years. I will always remember the great hoop conversations we had while working there. A tremendous person who gave back to so many. A tough loss for his family and our community.

RIP Ed. Gone but never forgotten!

“ To Ed's family...

I had the opportunity to know Ed as a fellow official and working with him as he committed himself to improving the lives of young people through athletics. A very dedicated man who had a kind word for those he encountered. I am grateful for our discussions that we shared on and off the playing field. I wish you peace and comfort in the days ahead.
