“ We regret that we were not able to travel to Syracuse to visit families as often as we would have liked. I will always remember my youth when our family stayed with Aunt Eleanor. Her family would come south to visit with my mother and dad. There were some great day trips. Aunt Eleanor had some Syracuse relatives' get together with her terrific cooking. I will miss her smile and love of life. Thankful for her long life and goodness.
Peace,

“ Dear Leslee, Ron & Family,

Your mother was a good and faithful friend of the Bordonaro Family. Her kindness to others was energetic. Her creativity and ability to bring people together was joyful. Her trust and faith in God was unwavering. As she consistently said in every Christmas card she sent of the Three Kings - “Wise men still adore Him!” I am sure that when God called her to see the light of His face, she was greeted with these words - “Eleanor, good and faithful servant, peace be with you.”

You are in my thoughts and prayer as I celebrate Mass for her and your father. May they rejoice in the Eternal Alleluia!

“ Leslee and Ron,

Purple..When I see purple I think of Eleanor and then I'm flooded with memories of love, laughter, family and friendship. Strufole, sugar cookies and sponge candy. Parties and lessons for so many things, all because of Eleanor. A treasured friend to my mom who will never forget all the help Eleanor was at Larry's ordination. We're all so sorry for your loss. May she rest in peace and may wonderful memories help carry you through.

“ Ron, So sorry for your loss. Upon reading your Mother's obituary, I discovered we have a bit more in common. My father, Henry Van Auken, was born in 1923 and also attended Nottingham High School. I believe my father and your mother were classmates and knew of each other. Henry, had he lived, would be 97 today. Henry grew up on Cambridge St. in the Westcott area.

I'm so sorry to hear about your Mom. I've been wondering about her. I knew it was your Mom as soon as I saw her picture. There is a strong resemblance. It was obvious how much you loved your Mom. You are all in my thoughts and prayers. May she rest in peace.

“ My most unforgettable character. She loved her family first and foremost. A social butterfly, up for almost anything, she was constantly on the go. I always looked forward to being around her because I knew laughter would be plentiful. And what great food she prepared! Eleanor welcomed me into her home many times over the years. For special occasions or just to say hello. Ron and Leslee I'm so sorry for your loss. Both of your parents were one of a kind people. So many memories! I feel blessed for having known them.
