Comments

“ The Collegiate Science Technology Entry Program (CSTEP) at Syracuse University wishes to extend our condolences to the family and friends of Helena Sekarore. Helena was a bright and shining spirit, whom possessed such great promise! We were lucky to have her join our CSTEP family in August 2019. Her physical work on earth may be done, yet her legacy of compassion and kindness will forever live on.

“ I taught sweet Helena (and 2 of her sisters) in elementary school. She was a thoughtful, hard working, and mature student. She always reminded me of a queen. God bless you Helena, you are now at peace.

“ I am truly saddened by the loss of the caring and sweet Helena. I took multiple classes with her when I was at Nottingham and her dedication to her friends and her education were like no other. I'm truly disappointed I won't be able to make the service but I send my condolences and support to her family and those that were lucky to have known her.
