“ I had a wonderful opportunity to share some conversation with Mrs. Sarah Rose DeGilormo during my dear friends Tiffany and Jodi's wedding reception. Mrs. DeGilormo and I shared some stories and laughs, and we even engaged in a brief elegant dance. I had met her one other time during which we shared some stories in common. Knowing her amazing granddaughter, and the little history I know of Sarah Rose, I am sure she was an amazing woman who will be deeply missed. My condolences to your entire family.

“ The Eichenlaub and Degilormo families were linked by Syracuse China, camp life and lifelong friendship which spanned from parents to children. I felt like I was part of Sarah's family and she treated me like I was. She was so loving and caring and was always there to help. She stepped right in when my daughter Gretchen got married. She was my impromptu wedding planner. I'm a better person and blessed to have been a part of her life. She will be forever missed. Chuck, Joe, John my heartfelt sympathies go out to you. Treasure all your priceless memories

“ Sarah was my godmother and I was so lucky to have her in my life. She was such a kind and caring person and the strongest woman I have known. I have so many happy memories of times at camp, dinners with the family and parties in my parents garage. She had the best laugh, you had to smile when you heard it. My sympathies to all in the family, you all meant the world to her.

“ Sarah was a wonderful neighbor and friend. She often opened her window to chat with us or to watch our Westies run around the backyard. At Christmas, she baked us delicious cookies and was always so kind to us. She will be missed.

“ Even though she was my mother-in-law, Sarah became a true Mother to me especially after my own Mother passed away. I went through some pretty rough patches and she never waivered and stood by my side during those sad times. Over the 55 years, we continued our relationship going places like her camp, lunch and dinners together, casino's, psychic fairs, long rides out to my place in Sylvan Beach, and shared many, many Birthdays and Holidays together. I have a lot to be grateful for in knowing this strong, kind lady. She will lovingly live in my heart forever. Rest in Peace, sweet Sarah. Love Nan
